New York University Senate

New York, October 15, 1905

Elector of the Hall of Fame

SIR:

The Senate of New York University respectfully presents to you this report of the official canvass of ballots received from the Electors of the Hall of Fame in 1905.

The total number of Electors reporting is 95, a majority being 48. Of the 95 Electors, 6 do not act upon the names of women, leaving 89 acting thereon, a majority being 44.

From 6 Electors, each of whom had consented to act this year, no ballot has been received. Of these Electors, 3 are Chief Justices in the South or West; 2 are prominent in politics, each in a Western State; the 6th is the President of a State University in the West. One ballot, received without name or other mark to indicate its sender, was probably sent by one of these six, but could not be counted. The number of Electors who accepted the office was 101, a majority being 51.

Before canvassing the ballots, the Senate of New York University, on Oct. 7, 1905 (when no one of its members except the chairman had any knowledge of the contents of any ballot), adopted unanimously the following resolution :

“To secure an unquestionable majority to every name that shall be inscribed in the Hall of Fame, the Senate, following the precedent of five years since, requires, in order to admit any name, the ballots of 51 out of 95 Electors ; and of 47 out of 86 Electors, who have considered the names of women.”

The Senate, having under the Deed of Gift, a right of veto on the names “approved by a majority of the answers received,” exercised the right in this limited form, by excluding every name lacking a majority of all the Electors.

The Senate appointed its president, vice-president, and secretary, whose names are subscribed below, to canvass the ballots.

The result of this canvass shows the following persons to be duly elected each to a vacant place in the Hall of Fame. The number of ballots approving each name is also indicated, including the ballot of Ambassador Whitelaw Reid, received since the canvass of October 6th–10th.
